THE STORY

THIS IS WHEELS MIXED SALVAGED COLLECTION

This is one of our signature panels. It's a hardwood reclaimed from redundant traditional building sources in Indonesia. The weather really went to work on this one, making it a diamond in the rough.

Some great craftsmanship complements the natural erosion.

RECLAIMED SALVAGED ORIENTAL WOODS

THE MIXED SALVAGED COLLECTION

We happily buy wood that cabinetmakers and sawmill-owners have rejected because of small scars and/or cracks. To them these imperfections make a piece of wood unsuitable. Whereas we love the idiosyncrasies and use them to the betterment of our collections.

Disused telegraph poles, girders, railroad sleepers, derelict houses, ... anything goes.
For this mixed bag we source in India and Indonesia.
